

The Consultant

Sociologist, communication expert, consultant and trainer with three decades of experience in development cooperation.

Between 1979 and 2015 Julien Biere worked in Algeria, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Burkina Faso, Burundi, Cape Verde, Egypt, Ethiopia, Gabon, Ghana, Ivory Coast, Jamaica, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Macedonia, Malawi, Mali, Morocco, Pakistan, Poland, Rwanda, Somalia, Tanzania, Tunisia, Turkey, Uganda, Ukraine and Zimbabwe. He worked as consultant to regional bodies in East Africa and Central Africa, Eastern and Central Europe, North Africa and Mediterranean for GIZ (GTZ), KfW, BMZ, PTB, UN, EU, World Bank and others. The submenu of this chapter (top and left) provides a detailed account of his career as consultant.

In 2015 Julien Biere moved away from developing cooperation, and returned to his creative roots as audiovisual producer, focussing on Europe and Germany. -> www.julienbiere.de

His current film + exposition project "LIVING LONGER - 100 Ways to Look at Age" addresses the challenge of demographic change. www.livinglonger.eu

YouTube Channel

facebook.com/livinglongerthemovie

© Julien Biere